Java with Jean (Feb. 11, 2021)

Participants: Bruce Fraser, Ann Austin-Cardwell, Wayne Hilliker, Bob LePage, Caroline Giesbrecht, Leslie King, Kathy Walton, Tom Walton, Jean Wilson, Don Chisholm, Donovan Brown, Judy MacGillivray, Rohan Wijesinghe, Kate Gregory, Ian Robb. Elizabeth Macdonald and David Shepherd joined near the end.

Topic for discussion was: What does Lent mean for you and do you have any spiritual practices for it?

After introductions, we broke into small groups for the discussion, then reconvened to close the meeting.

Notes:

Jean Wilson is leading a Lenten study based on the poetry of Emily Dickinson.

Trenton United is reading Amy Jill Levine's book "The Sermon on the Mount".

Tom is reading "The Third Reconstruction" by Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II.

Ian is reading "White Fragility" by Robin DeAngelo

Wayne is reading "Always a Guest" by Barbara Brown Taylor (sermon entitled "Time to Face the Demons")

Katy is reading Brene Brown's "Braving the Wilderness".

Attached is a sermon on the meaning of Good Friday, submitted by Wayne Hilliker.
