Canada's oldest surviving Methodist Church. Built on Paul Huff's farm, it was the first "meeting house" in Upper Canada (Ontario).

Abandoned in the 1860, it was sold to a local farmer and used as a barn. In 1910 the Methodist purchased "the barn" and started the first on several restorations.

Operated by volunteers eager to share the church's history.

Admission is free. Donations are welcome on site, or at Canadahelps.org.
