

Sponsored by:
The Joint Truth and Reconciliation Action
Group of Chalmers, Sydenham Street and
Faith United Churches, in Kingston
Ontario.

Located on the traditional territories of the
Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee
Peoples.

Starting in January 2022, join us for a new online reading and reflection series...

Based on the 2019 Report on the Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls, this series includes three Monday sessions (each 1 hr and 15 minutes). Following a brief plenary, there will be time for discussion in small break-out groups. The session closes with a wrap-up back in plenary. Sessions begin at 7:30 pm EST.

January 24, 2022 The roots of violence and how it diminishes life for all
Keetsahnak: Our Missing and Murdered Indigenous Sisters
By Editors, Kim Anderson, Maria Campbell, and Christi Belcourt
(Chapters 1, 2, 4, 5 and 6)

February 21, 2022 A model of anti-violence from an Indigenous Perspective
Keetsahnak: Our Missing and Murdered Indigenous Sisters
By Editors, Kim Anderson, Maria Campbell, and Christi Belcourt
(Chapters 7, 9, 11, 13, 14 and 15)

March 7, 2022 Calls for Justice
A focus on the Calls for Justice to All Canadians contained in the MMIWG report and on the actions and advocacy we can all engage in.

Each session will include assigned readings, videos, and visual art, created in response to the MMIWG Inquiry.

TO REGISTER, email: Juliet Huntly at jhuntly6@gmail.com or call 613-376-3391

This reading group is open to all who desire to further their own understanding of these complex issues. We recognize that the material may be difficult for many and may surface painful emotions. Contact information for further support will be provided at the sessions.