As of March 2022 [*This will be further updated as new submissions are received.

Direct to Paul Kneebone – Secretary, LLWL Forum – paul.kneebone@rogers.com]

First developed & written by Richard Weigand in March-2020, with added submission by Marilyn Fortin. Subsequently updated with additional submissions in March & April-2022 --- by Rev. Cathy Gradante, Susan Pleasance, Rev. Stobie, Paul Kneebone & Evelyn Chambers (submissions from 2019 LLWL meeting)

*To prevent duplication -- if a particular website-book, etc. mentioned in more than one submission, we try to only include the first time it was submitted – with some exceptions.

United Church Resources

The “Gathering” Magazine – One of the best and least costly magazines that is a wonderful resource for creating liturgical worship services. This publication can be found on the United Church Bookstore website. <https://ucrdstore.ca/search?type=product&q=gathering> *Now expanded version available online, plus print.

Web Sites of Interest

On a personal note, I use websites for research and not for copying and printing a message for the weekly worship service. For me, part of the worship bulletin and message preparation is learning the spiritual message and growing my personal relationship with God. [Richard Weigand, LLWL]

Revised Common Lectionary

<https://lectionary.library.vanderbilt.edu/>

For each week, the RCL website has added scriptural reflections based on a featured art image, as well as RCL prayers for worship.

Bible Gateway

<https://www.biblegateway.com/>

A wonderful resource for various bible translations and study resources for the deeper spiritual and cultural meanings. They also have a great store for purchasing study bibles, etc.

Christian History Institute

<https://christianhistoryinstitute.org>

This is a very scholarly publication that is fully accessible in downloadable pdf format. A balanced study with each issue looks at key Christian beliefs by prominent scholars.

Submitted by Rev. Cathy Gradante:

I would offer the following links for excellent resources with lectionary commentaries that people can sign up to receive weekly:

<https://www.journeywithjesus.net>

<https://www.saltproject.org/>

Another excellent commentary can be found here:

<https://www.davidlose.net/tag/in-the-meantime/>

And of course, people can always wade through the multitude of resources on www.textweek.com

- but a word of caution that some of it is pretty dated.

Liturgical resources can be found here:

Themed Study Bibles

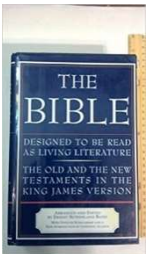

Life Application Study Bible (NIV)

The Life Application Study Bible is today's #1-selling study Bible, containing notes that not only explain difficult passages and give information on Bible life and times, but go a step further to show you how to "take it personally," as God's Word speaks to every situation and circumstance of your life! It's the one Bible resource that incorporates today's top scholarship in answering your real-life questions and includes nearly 10,000 Life Application notes and features designed to help readers apply God's truth to everyday life.

The Bible – Designed to be read as living literature

This updated edition of the Bates bible (first published to enormous acclaim in 1936) appears at a time of increased interest in the Bible as literature. What does it offer new readers? Traditional chapter and verse numbers have been removed, and the books, especially narrative material, are divided into sense units. Poetry is printed in verse, and characters are identified in dramas (Job and Song of Songs). Material believed to hinder readers' enjoyment and understanding (genealogies, legal codes, repetition) has been omitted. Finally, the King James Version (KJV) is used because of its stature as a classic. Still, the question remains whether readers are attracted to the Bible as a literary classic or as scripture. If the former, all the editorial work can be justified. If the latter, it is debatable whether there is any "clutter" that needs to be deleted. In addition, the KJV is possibly not the best choice for presenting the Bible as "living literature" to people in the late 20th century. While this volume may inspire many to read the Bible for the first time, it is not the last word in "reading Bibles."-- Craig W. Beard, Univ. of Alabama, Birmingham

Cultural Background Study Bible (NIV)

CONTEXT CHANGES EVERYTHING

You've heard many Bible stories hundreds of times, but how many behind-the-scenes details are you missing? Sometimes a little context is all you need to discover the rich meaning behind the stories of Scripture.

That's what the NIV Cultural Backgrounds Study Bible provides. Every page is packed with expert insight into the customs, culture, and literature of Bible times. These fascinating explanations will serve to clarify your study of the Scriptures, reinforcing your confidence and bringing difficult passages of Scripture into sharp focus.

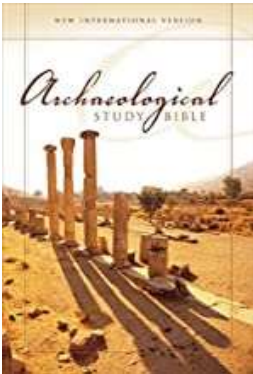

Discover new dimensions of insight to even the most familiar Bible passages as you take a behind-the-scenes tour into the ancient world.

The Bible was originally written to an ancient people removed from us by thousands of years and thousands of miles. The Scriptures include subtle culturally based nuances, undertones, and references to ancient events, literature and customs that were intuitively understood by those who first heard the Scriptures read. For us to hear the Scriptures as they did, we need a window into their world.

The NIV Cultural Backgrounds Study Bible, with notes from Dr. John H. Walton (Wheaton College) in the Old Testament and Dr. Craig S. Keener (Asbury Theological Seminary) in the New Testament, brings to life the ancient world of Scripture for modern readers.

Archaeological Study Bible (NIV)

Readers who desire a more intimate knowledge of the historical context of the Bible will appreciate the NIV Archaeological Study Bible. Full of informative articles and full-color photographs of places and objects from biblical times, this Bible examines the archaeological record surrounding God's Word and brings the biblical world to life. Readers' personal studies will be enriched as they become more informed about the empires, places, and peoples of the ancient world. Features include: • Four-color interior throughout • Bottom-of-page study notes exploring passages that speak on archaeological and cultural facts • Articles (520) covering five main categories: Archaeological Sites, Cultural and Historical Notes, Ancient Peoples and Lands, the Reliability of the Bible, and Ancient Texts and Artifacts • Approximately 500 4-color photographs interspersed throughout • Detailed book introductions that provide basic, at-a-glance information • Detailed charts on pertinent topics • In-text color maps that assist the reader in placing the action "

John Dominic Crossan and Marcus Borg

Any books by either or both of these authors is a wonderful resource for a deeper understanding of the historical, social, religious world in which Jesus lived.

In The First Christmas Marcus J. Borg and John Dominic Crossan—top Jesus scholars and authors of The Last Week—help us see the real Christmas story buried in the familiar Bible accounts. Basing their interpretations on the two nativity narratives in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, Borg and Crossan focus on the literal story—the inner truth rather than the historical facts—to offer a clear and uplifting message of hope and peace. With The First Christmas readers get a fresh, deep, and new understanding of the nativity story, enabling us to better appreciate the powerful message of the Gospels.

<https://www.amazon.ca/First-Christmas-Gospels-Really-Jesus>

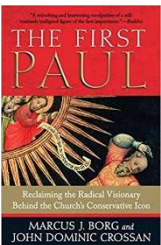

Top Jesus scholars Marcus J. Borg and John Dominic Crossan join together to reveal a radical and little-known Jesus.

As both authors reacted to and responded to questions about Mel Gibson's blockbuster The Passion of the Christ, they discovered that many Christians are unclear on the details of events during the week leading up to Jesus's crucifixion.

Using the gospel of Mark as their guide, Borg and Crossan present a day-by-day account of Jesus's final week of life. They begin their story on Palm Sunday with two triumphal entries into Jerusalem. The first entry, that of Roman governor Pontius Pilate leading Roman soldiers into the city, symbolized military strength. The second heralded a new kind of moral hero who was praised by the people as he rode in on a humble donkey. The Jesus introduced by Borg and Crossan is this new moral hero, a more dangerous Jesus than the one enshrined in the church's traditional teachings.

The Last Week depicts Jesus giving up his life to protest power without justice and to condemn the rich who lack concern for the poor. In this vein, at the end of the week Jesus marches up Calvary, offering himself as a model for others to do the same when they are confronted by similar issues. Informed, challenged, and inspired, we not only meet the historical Jesus, but meet a new Jesus who engages us and invites us to follow him.

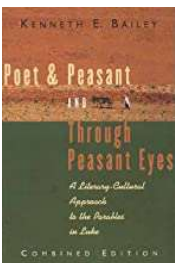

<https://www.amazon.ca/Last-Week-Gospels-Really-Jerusalem>

Continuing in the tradition of The Last Week and The First Christmas, world-renowned New Testament scholars Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan use the best of biblical and historical scholarship to expose the church's conspiracy to silence Jesus's most faithful disciple, the apostle Paul.

Parables

This volume is a combined edition of Poet and Peasant and Through Peasant Eyes, Kenneth Bailey's intensive studies of the parables in the gospel of Luke.

Bailey begins by surveying the development of allegorical, historical-eschatological, aesthetic, and existential methods of interpretation. Though figures like Jeremias, Dodd, Jones, and Via have made important advances, Bailey sees the need to go beyond them by combining an examination of the poetic structures of the parables with a better understanding of the Oriental culture that informs the text.

Bailey's work within Middle Eastern peasant culture over the last twenty years has helped him in his attempt to determine the cultural assumptions that the teller of the parables must have made about his audience. The same values which underlay the impact of the parables in Christ's time, Bailey suggests, can be discovered today in isolated peasant communities in Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, and Iraq. Because time has made almost no impact in these cultural pockets, it is possible to discern, for example, what it meant 2,000 years ago for a friend to come calling at midnight, or for a son to ask for his inheritance prior to his father's death.

In addition to illuminating the cultural framework of the parables, Bailey offers an analysis of their literary structure, treating the parabolic section as a whole as well as its individual components. Through its combination of literary and cultural analyses, Bailey's study makes a number of profound advances in parabolic interpretation.

Parables of Jesus

Mary Magdalene

The Apostle Paul

Submitted by Marilyn Fortin, LLWL:

My go-to resource is the UCC webpage and I also use the Gathering Magazine as well as the Worship for All Seasons II, Selections from Gathering – Year A magazine.

I also like www.prayasyoucan.com for different perspectives on the passage. Feasting on the Word shares brief essays on exegetical, theological, homiletical and pastoral challenges to the text. Texts for Preaching, A Lectionary Commentary Based on the NRSV-Year A is an excellent resource.

Submitted by Rev. Janet Stobie:

My name is Rev. Janet Stobie. My husband Tom is a member of your LLWL group. Since my retirement from full-time pastoral ministry, I have been growing and enjoying my writing ministry. At this point I have written nine books. My goal in writing is to inspire and provide resources for both clergy and laity.

Short Stories

- Breakthrough Moments/ Threads of Scripture in the Fabric of Life
- Can I Hold Him? /Christmas Stories for All Ages
- A Child Speaks/Hear the Voices of the Children of the Bible

Jesus was the greatest story teller of the midrash tradition. These stories bring a new perspective, encouraging both preacher and congregant to apply the scripture to their daily lives. The use of monologues brings a freshness to preaching the word. Rosemary Lambie, Executive Minister of ECORC, reviewed Breakthrough

Moments saying: "These stories challenge our faithful behaviour in difficult but believable situations...may this book become a treasured resource in your personal collections worn out from use."

Worship Resource:

- Dipping Your Toes in Small Group Devotions

Written in response to the expressed needs of our United Church Women, this resource contains 44 full devotional worship services that include hymn choices, scripture, call to worship, reflection, prayers, and discussion questions. Clergy and laity find it easy to use when leading worship. Each reflection can be the basis of a full sermon. It has been enthusiastically received in United Churches across Canada. Rob Dalglish of EDGE, UCC Network of Ministry Development, reviewing Dipping Your Toes said: "Dipping Your Toes is an excellent, practical worship planning resource that comes out of the rich experience of a long-time practitioner. Even more than that, it is a learning tool to unleash the gifts of lay people and deepen their discipleship in service to make ministry possible in ways it wasn't before. A MUST GET."

Children's books:

- Spectacular Stella
- Elizabeth Gets Her Wings

These little books are great resources for the Young and Young at Heart time. They teach children and adults that they are each God's beloved child, special as God created them. The purchaser has my permission to scan the illustrations into their computer and use them as a power point while telling the story.

Novels: The Catalpa Creek Series:

- Fireweed
- To Begin Again

LLWL's like clergy need to take time to rest, relax and care for their own needs. These two novels offer hours of relaxation and life learning. They challenge readers to consider their own responses to everyday issues.

I offer you a list of my books and their uses. They are all available through me: revjanetstobie@gmail.com and many are available on Amazon.ca.

You can learn more about me, my books and my blog at www.janetstobie.com
